

Why do we learn about History?

- To learn about past societies and civilisations.
- To think critically.
- To develop our understanding of the world.
- To learn from the successes and mistakes in the past to help shape our lives.
- To understand the connections between the past and present.

Successful Historian

Career Ideas

- Historian
- Researcher
- Conservation officer
- Archaeologist
- Heritage manager
- Museum curator
- Solicitor
- Broadcaster
- Journalist
- Teacher
- Politician
- Researcher
- Palaeontologist
- Archivist

Enquire & Think Critically
To ask questions and
interpret sources

A curiosity for knowledge about the past.

Explore and use new vocabulary

Chronological understanding

- To understand the sequence of events
- To understand where periods fit within History

To gain knowledge and understanding of the past –
including Britain's past