

Why do we learn about Religion?

- To reflect on our own ideas and develop thoughts about questions of meaning and ethics.
- To promote respect, empathy and understanding to all people around the world.
- To develop an understanding of the spiritual, moral, social and cultural questions that surface again and again in our lives.
- To provoke challenging questions

Successful Theologian

Jobs

- Religious leader
- Vicar
- Bishop
- Travel and tourism
- Health and social care
- Teacher
- Public service
- Researcher
- Journalist

To provoke challenging questions

To promote respect, empathy and understanding

Explore and use new vocabulary

To make sense of religious texts

To gain knowledge of the key elements of the different world religions and beliefs

To make connections and understand impact

